

Have an idea to make social change?

Don't quite know where to start?

Attend Turning Ideas into Action! This two-day workshop for young people (ages 14-29) will teach you how to:

- Develop a project/organizational mission statement
- Find and manage the money
- Find the necessary support (volunteers, advocates, etc.)

The Nuts and Bolts

Cost to Attend

Ages 19 and Over, Both Workshops: $20

Ages 19 and Over, Single Workshop: $12

No Cost for Youth Under 19

RSVP

All attendees must RSVP by March 7. For paid attendees (19 and over), go to www.ynpnchicago.org. Those under 19, send email to turningideas@gmail.com.

Program Agenda

March 15, 2008: Mission and Program Development

April 19, 2008: Board and Fund Development

Time

12:00-5:00 p.m. Lunch will be provided.

Location

North Park University (Foster and Kedzie, Chicago)

For More Information

(773) 244-5747 or turningideas@gmail.com

Sponsored By:

Young Nonprofit Professionals Network — Chicago

Women & Girls Collective Action Network

The Axelson Center for Nonprofit Management at North Park University

Chicago Freedom School

Young Women's Action Team